

Instructions From The Messenger

Boston - June 12, 1960

Whatever the Minister orders to be done, is to be done. Any Captain in any Temple is subjected to the Minister or Secretary for orders.

The Captain is like a sheriff or commissioner of police. He received his orders from the Mayor. He is under the Mayor, and the Mayor is under the Governor. When we learn our post...that is the best way.

If the Minister fails to give orders as he should to captain, secretary and investigator, the captain is the person to capture person out of order. He is over all in certain cases such as rebellion or opposing fundamental instructions of Islam or opposing me and Allah...then the Captain takes over.

The Captain is to always report things he sees that the Minister does not see. If the Minister does not cooperate in helping captain or opposes those things of Islam, the Captain should report these things to the congregation. Then take a vote, but not in an aggressive way. The Minister should write a report. Give your stand and the peoples stand to the Messenger. Take instructions from the Messenger. But do not head any rebellion.

Secretary and Captain's spotlight is the Minister. If his spotlight is not in the right place, then they go to him and tell him. Learn 100% what is the program. If the Minister got his mixed up or not capable of keeping it right, then the Minister should be relieved from post. Ask people to take vote to get him down until you hear from Messenger. The Messenger knows what Allah wants him to do.
