

By Messenger Elijah Muhammad

After Moses' two thousand years came Jesus. His mother's name was Mary and his father's name was Joseph. Mary and Joseph were school children together. They always loved each other. They agreed to marry when very small children going to school. When Joseph and Mary grew to the age of fifteen and seventeen, Joseph went to Mary's father and told him that he loved Mary and Mary loved him and that they wanted to get married. Joseph was a poor man, a commoner. He also was a carpenter by trade; not a first - class carpenter, but one of those building little rough houses in South Europe.

Mary's father was rich and had plenty of property. Also, her grandfather was rich. So, Mary's father objected to her marriage to Joseph, a poor carpenter. Mary loved Joseph and told her father that if she did not marry him, she would not marry anyone else. When the old man heard this, it made him sick, because no father wants his daughter to be an old maid. Joseph gave up thinking about marrying Mary and went and married another girl. Mary's father would go out and bring in very rich young men for his daughter in hopes of his daughter taking a liking to some of these young men, but she did not.

Joseph owned a little house, a small piece of land, and was also rearing up a family. He soon was the father of six children by this girl that he married and was married for six years. Mary's father was a big wealthy man and a great architect.

The old man had to go away to another town, about twenty - five miles from his home and set up a temple, but before he left home, he called Mary and side to her, " Now daughter, I have to go away and I will be gone for about three days. Now you must take care of everything until I return. You must feed and water all of the livestock." (The old man had plenty of cattle.) He also said to Mary : "I want you to wear my old clothes and put on some false whiskers so that the people when they see you going down to feed the stock, they will think you are me and no one will say anything to you.

After the man leaves on his journey, a great dust storm comes up, which made it very dark. This kind of storm comes up twice a year. During this storm, Mary becomes frightened and sends a message to Joseph, telling him that her father had gone away and that he would be away for three days. That she was left to feed and water all of the livestock and that she was alone and was a little afraid. She asked Joseph to come over and help her to take care of everything and the he would be company for her. Joseph tells his wife that he has to go off on a little business. He came over to Mary's house and she tells him of the costumes of her father what she would wear when she goes out to feed the livestock.

Joseph said, " Give me the old man's costume and when anybody sees us, they will think I am the old man with you." Joseph gets the team ready and Mary gets in with him to feed the livestock. The next day Joseph comes back and stays with Mary and helps her to feed and take care of the livestock.

On the third day, Mary's father came back and asked his daughter, " How 's everything ?" She said, : "All right, Father."

So after three months the old man noticed Mary was growing larger than usual. He said to Mary, "What is the matter with you fattening so fast? Are you eating more than you should ?" Mary said, "No, Father, I am not eating more than I should." The old man called Mary again and said "Mary,there is something the matter with you. Look how large you are. What are you doing?" Mary no longer could hide it, so she told him the truth.

She said to him, "Father ,do you remember when you went off to set up a temple and were gone for three days some time ago and left me to attend the livestock? Well, I was afraid because of a dust storm and sent for Joseph to come over and help me. Well, he came and did help me feed the stock." The old man said, "Yes, and he fed them, too." She said to him, "Do you remember Joseph and me were trying to get you to let us marry when we were young and you would not allow us?"

Now this is what happened and I shall send for Joseph and let him tell you for himself." An old woman had already been to Joseph and told him that the child Mary was carrying was his child and the child would be a wonderful child, a prophet and teacher. She told him that the child was his, but Joseph denied it.

But this woman knew because she was a prophetess, or what we call a medium. She told him his name was in the Holy Qur'an and that he should take care of him and that the authorities would seek the child's life.

Joseph went and told Mary the good news that the old woman had told him concerning the child. Then Joseph went to Mary's father. By this time the old man was real sick because Mary was growing larger and larger everyday. He was in bed and had just pulled all of the whiskers out of his chin. Joseph said to the old man: "I will tell you about the whole thing, then you can kill me right here. Mary and I always loved each other, even when we were going to school and promised to marry when we were old enough. I came to you and asked you for Mary's hand but you would not give her to me. Now this is what happen. I am the father of the child that Mary is carrying but remember that the child is going to be a great man, a prophet and teacher. His name can be found in the history of the Holy Qur'an. Now remember, you must not tell anyone about this because of the authorities. If they knew this they would kill the child. So keep your mouth shut about this. Now you can kill me if you want to. I have told you the truth."

The last month of Mary's pregnancy drew near but the authorities did not know what time the child would be born. So the same medium that told Joseph of the child also went and told the authorities but no one knew which day the child would be born, although they knew the week. The authorities had a committee to go around and take a census of all the pregnant women and when they would give birth. This committee checked everyone who was pregnant. When the week came that Jesus would be born, the authorities had given orders that all boy babies born in that week should be killed. Joseph came and took charge of Mary himself. All men over in Asia are taught how to take care of their wives and perform this duty of their wives.

In case they don't care for a wet nurse, the girls are also taught about midwifery when still very young.

Mary's father had plenty of livestock and ordered stalls to be built. Joseph took one of the stalls and filled it in all around the inside and put a bed in the center for Mary (this is the manger that the Bible speaks about where Jesus was born). To look at the stalls from the outside, it appeared as if it was just a stall filled with hay for the animals. In this way he concealed Mary from the authorities. He brought her food and water every day. In that week when the authorities were expecting Jesus to be born, they sent the committee around to those who had a list of who would give birth that same week. When they came to Mary's father's house, they knocked on the door and the old man went and met them. They said to him, "Where is the woman who gave birth this week?" Doesn't she stay here?" The old man said "What woman?" They said, "The one that was with child." He said , "Oh, I know what you are talking about. The woman that was here some time. She was only visiting here," the old man said. She has returned to her home in Egypt. " They said, "Oh, she was just visiting?" The old man said, "Yes that is all. "

Joseph came daily with water and food to Mary and to see the baby. He fooled his wife by telling her that he had a job building a house. This was how Jesus was born.

After a few days and as soon as Mary was able, Joseph told her that he would have to send her and the child away to his people down in Egypt. Joseph gets himself and Mary all prepared to leave for Egypt. At a certain time of the year in Palestine where they were living a dark cloud comes up.

When this kind of cloud comes up, one cannot see so well. It was the kind of cloud that Joseph waited for. Under the darkness of this stormy cloud, Joseph mounted Mary and her baby on the back of an ass. Away they went for the camel station. The ass (or donkey) knew the route under the darkness of the storm cloud. (the camel station is where camels are for hire.) Over at home (Asia) we have camel stations. They are called mail camels. The camel is very sensitive and a fast runner. The mail camels go from forty to fifty miles per hour and it was one of the mail camels they hired. From Jerusalem to Cairo, Egypt was about six hundred miles. The camel knew the route well. He travels it daily. Nothing is necessary except to tell the camel where you want him to go and he will go right direct to the place. They have comfortable seats on their backs. Joseph had provided Mary with money and everything. So he mounted her and Jesus on the mail camel, and told the camel to take them to Cairo, Egypt, as fast as possible. Off they went and Joseph and the ass returned home.

Mary took the child Jesus into Egypt where his people lived at Cairo. When Jesus was about the age of five, his mother put him in school. A very intelligent child in school he was. He finished school at the age of twelve. He took courses in astronomy, geometry, and all other branches of sciences. There was an old man who had learned that Jesus was born and he wanted to see Jesus and must see him at any price. He knew what Jesus was going to be and how the authorities were going to seek him and try to destroy him. This old man wanted to get to Jesus and teach him how to stay out of the way of those who would seek to kill him. This old man's lesson that he wanted to teach Jesus was about the Radio in the Head." This old man knew it. It is called Radio in the Head because with this great wisdom you can hear as distinctively as one can hear over a wire or like the present radio.

The man actually hears what other men think or say in their heads. Jesus must know this wisdom. The old man goes and gets on the road that Jesus uses to come and go to school, but he must see him alone. The first day the old man watched the boys come from school with Jesus. When Jesus got out of school, he and the other boys would be together. The old man could not get to talk with Jesus. He goes back and says, "I will come back tomorrow. I will get right in front of him and fall across his path." The next day the old man looking for Jesus saw him and the other boys coming alone. Jesus was talking about his lessons and was teaching another boy his algebra.

The old man pretended to the boys that he was looking for a certain street number and Jesus heard him asking the boys the number, and the number he called was just a few doors from his home. Jesus said, "I know where you want to go." The other boys went home and left the old man and Jesus together. The old man said to Jesus, "I heard you talking about algebra. You are a very smart boy. I have a grandson and he is studying the same course. I would like for you to come over and teach him his lesson as you could help him a lot." Jesus said, "Yes, I will." This just suited Jesus. He liked to teach someone something.

The old man did not have anyone for Jesus, nor did he care about the number that Jesus was taking him to. He said to Jesus, "Do you know who you are and what your name is?" Jesus said, "Yes my name is Jesus, and I don't know any more than that. I believe that I will be a great man someday." "Yes," said the old man. "Your name is in the Qur'an. Have you seen it there? You are that man. I am not looking for a number. I was looking for you. I have something that I want to teach you because as soon as you finish school, you will leave home and you are going to Europe to the Adamie Civilization to teach. Also you must know how to take care of yourself because they will try to kill you."

The next day the old man goes and gets himself onto the path Jesus uses. It just so happened that Jesus was all alone this day, walking behind his classmates, so the old man was very glad.. He walked with Jesus toward his mother's house and this time he gives his first lesson about receiving messages (Radio in the Head). It was easy for Jesus to learn anything. He learned it within three days. Then the old man said to him, "Now you can go anywhere you want to. You can take care of yourself ; nobody can harm you now unless you let them. "

After Jesus finished school , he said to his mother that he was going to Europe. His mother did not want him to go. She gave him everything that she thought he wanted. At the age of fourteen his mother could not keep him any longer. She gave him two thousand dollars the day he left to go to Europe.

Jesus had not gone but a few blocks before he had given the two thousand dollars away that his mother had given him. Then he left Cairo and walked six hundred miles to Europe from Jerusalem in his bare feet, teaching as he traveled. If he got hungry, he would not eat your bread unless you let him work for it. He would wash his own clothes in a lake or some place where he could find water. He never ate a meal without working for it but once, and that was one day when he walked until his feet was sore and swollen. He stopped at this woman's house that is in your Bible, by the name of Martha. Luke 10:38 says: "Now it came to pass,as they went,that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house." She bathed his feet and prepared him some food. This is not the only time that he was at her home.

Jesus had a hard time trying to teach the people Freedom, Justice, Equality. He taught anywhere and everywhere that he could get the people to listen to him. He never had over twenty -five or thirty listeners at one time. He would start teaching at a place and before he could finish the authorities would be on their way after him. But he always stayed tuned in on them. As soon as they would start after him, and would get near him, he would dismiss his congregation and run for his life. They never would have killed Jesus if he had given himself up because he always knew what they were going to do before they could start. The basis of Jesus' teaching were Freedom, Justice,and Equality, or to sum it up, " The Sermon on the Mount." Jesus taught "As a man thinketh in his heart so is he." Jesus' teachings were designed to show the Adamic Race that they would eventually self - destruct because of their own evil doings and not from some avenging God in the sky ! Repent of your evil and be saved. The Beatitudes teach the principles and rules of the Kingdom of God.

Jesus 'constant cry was, " I come not to destroy the law but to fulfill it." To fulfill means to be in actuality. The authorities chased Jesus until he became discouraging to them. They named him Christ (which means troublemaker) because every time they would get there, he would be gone. Jesus taught twenty - two years on the run. Until, at last he read and understood that he was to soon : two thousand years to soon ! Jesus was two thousand years ahead of time for the teaching of freedom, justice, and equality.

It was raining that day. He got himself a standing place under a awning of a Jew's store and began teaching those who were stopping under the awning out of the rain. The Jew who owned the store got angry with Jesus about teaching in front of his store and asked him to leave. Jesus told him to let him teach under his awning, that the people he was teaching would buy something from him. But the Jew insisted that the people were keeping those that might buy something from seeing his goods in the showcase. But Jesus said, " I don't care. If I leave here I will lose my people who are listening to me. " He had about twenty - five there. Jesus never had over thirty - five listening to him at any one time. The multitudes that the Bible speaks of only heard about Jesus from word of mouth.

The Jew said, " You are the man called Jesus that the authorities are looking for a long time." Jesus said, "Yes I am the one and you can call them anytime you want to." The Jew goes in and sends for the authorities, informing them that Jesus was teaching right in front of his store. "Come right over, right away, and you will catch him," he said.

Two officers (policeman) were sent to the scene. Now there was a reward out for Jesus. The reward was twenty-five hundred in gold (not thirty pieces of silver) if he was brought in dead, and fifteen hundred dollars if he were brought in alive. So these two officers raced down to the old Jew's store where said Jesus was. Each of the officers wanted the reward. Jesus knew that they were coming and made no effort to leave because he intended for them to kill him. The two officers rushed up to him, one on each side of him, each man trying to be the first to lay hands on Jesus so he could get the reward because the reward would only be paid to one man. Both of the men (officers) came near, touching Jesus at the same time. The one on the right said Jesus was his man. The one on the left said, "No, he's mine. I was the first to touch him". The other said, " I was the first.

Jesus seeing them arguing and disputing about him, said to them. "Will you let me help you settle this argument and tell you who was the first man to put his hands on me?" The two officers agreed to let Jesus settle it for them. "The man on the right side touched me one tenth of a second before the one on the left." So the one on the left lost the reward. The one on the right who won took Jesus and started on toward the jail. They got down the street and the officer said to Jesus, "Listen I will only get fifteen hundred dollars in gold for carrying you in alive, but if I carry you to them they are going to kill you anyway, so why not let me kill you and make the twenty -five hundred dollars as I am a poor man and have a wife and family to care for?" Jesus knew that he would be killed but did not care.

So Jesus agreed with the officer that he would let him kill him so he could get the bigger reward. These officers were armed with a knife. The kind of knife that the hand would not slip either way on it like the present hunting knives. Jesus and the officer walked down the street where a Jew's store was vacant with boards nailed over the front to secure the safety of the store. The officer said, "Right here is all right. Now put your back against the wall and your hands up."

Jesus was not afraid. He was a brave man. He put his hands up and straightened himself and put his hands straight across the storefront flat against the boards.

These articles are written due to the mental blindness and theological knowledge of the Bible's teaching of Jesus' birth, life, teachings and death: The making of Jesus the equal of his sender (Almighty God) and more than a prophet; and a hearer of prayers; the rising from the dead and ascending into space to reach his FATHER in the heavens. There to await at His right-hand side until the Day of Judgment though he was supposed to have died to save the world. Now, his return to destroy the people or world that he died to save and reconcile to God.

Jesus was born, according to Matthew 1:21, to save his people from their sins. Jesus disclaimed the Jews as being his people (John 8:44). Then who are his people that "he will save from their sins?" Can he hear our prayers? Is he alive in flesh or is he dead? Who did Jesus pray to?

Learn in this series on JESUS the truth and understanding of what is written of Jesus. The Bible and Holy Qur'an's teachings will be used on Jesus' history. Do not miss - no not one of these articles.

Jesus' birth and ministry would bring about the end of Jewish independence. Therefore, Jesus birth and place could not be revealed (the story of the deceitful Herod is well known)

THE NUMBER one secret was that Joseph and Mary were not married. Yet, Mary was pregnant. How could they hide this thing? This was the great problem facing them. They wanted to marry, but could not because of the objection by Mary's father to Joseph because he was the son of a poor man and he was a rich man.

Joseph was now married to another woman for the past six years and had six children by his wife. Yet Mary was his childhood sweetheart, and they had promised to marry each other when they grew up to marriageable age.

This is the teaching of the childhood love of Joseph and Mary by Allah (in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad to Whom be praised forever). I have much more to write on what Allah (God) taught of the true history of Jesus.

This is the history of Jesus, as taught me by Allah, in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad, to Whom be praised forever.

THE REAL truth of this world and people was kept a secret only to be revealed and made manifest by the All knowing One (Allah in Person) at the time of the end of this world. (Due to limited space and time, please excuse my not pointing out to you every chapter and verse of Bible and Holy Qur'an where it can be found.)

Last week, I told you Joseph and Mary were sweethearts of and their promise to marry each other when they became of marriageable age - though not in every detail as Allah (God) in the person of Master Fard Muhammad (to Whom be praised forever) taught me, which is not necessary here.

I mentioned that part of the true history of Jesus where the physical side is mistaken for the spiritual side. Teachers and preachers of Christianity have confused the public, themselves and followers due to the lack of the right understanding of the scripture. But you should be happy that you are living in these days of the manifestation of those hidden truths pertaining to this world that you have always wanted to know.

FOR THE past 35 years, I have constantly preached and taught you what He (Master Fard Muhammad) taught me. Can you prove with truth what I am teaching that He taught me, to be other than the truth ?

I have taken up Jesus and his teaching because after Master Fard Muhammad taught me, I saw quickly that this man's (Jesus') history was the world's most misrepresented and misunderstood. What Allah has taught me of the truth is common sense and makes sense.

The purpose of Jesus' birth and teaching was to show forth that which was to come. Allah, in the Person of Fard Muhammad (to Whom be praised forever) said that we would not have known Jesus if he had not died (or given his life for the truth that he taught;) and the prophets before Jesus suffered death for the truth that they taught ;or,as Allah said, any true Muslim will give his or her life for Islam.

I WILL agree with the teaching of the Holy Qur'an that Jesus and his mother was a sign. I shall prove this in this series on the purpose of Jesus' birth and mission, according to the Bible and Holy Qur'an, on which the two books agree: The fulfillment of the Prophets of Israel, and to serve as a sign for the last Messenger and his people

(the lost and found, lost members of the black nation here in North America.)

The ignorant preach that Jesus was the God Himself, while Jesus represented himself as one sent from God. And Jesus taught the people to believe in the God who sent him, and sent that he came not to do his will, but the will of He Who sent him.

Jesus was born as all human beings ; flesh and blood, and he died as all human beings ; in the flesh of which he was made. And his body is still dead like all other dead - just as Moses before him, and the Prophets after him. Your prayers to anyone who is dead cannot be heard, for their hearing went with them in their death. Matt. 1:21, and she shall bring (give birth) forth a son, and Thou shall call his name Jesus: for he shall save his people from their sins.

IT IS useless to say that the jews were Jesus's people whom he must save from their sins. In all his teaching Jesus never claimed kinship to the jews. And most of his parables were made in condemnation of the wicked house (race) of Israel. And finally classified them as being a race of devils because their father was a devil. John 8:44.

They claim to be the children of God (the god of righteousness ; the same god of Abraham.) This claim is still made by the whole of the caucasian world today : "That we all are people from the same God," only to deceive the righteous. Their god is not our God, and Jesus reminded them of this in Matt.8:42 in the 40th verse of the chapter: That they were the murderers of the righteous who preached the truth.

This is fulfilled today by the same race. They know I preach the truth and they seek to kill me and my followers and destroy our places of worship, or any so - called Negroes and their places of worship if they seek truth and justice.

Would God give a son to die to save His enemies? Will God send another son to die for the sins of this same people that they have committed since the death of Jesus, and save them from the fire of hell which has now been kindled ? If the world of white mankind is saved by the death of Jesus, and their sins forgiven, what was the cause of their sins since Jesus denounced them to be devils themselves ?

It is repeatedly prophesied in the Bible and Holy Qur'an that God will forgive the sins of the lost - found members of the Black Nation, whom God, Himself, would find and restore at the time and end of the world.

How could Jesus have been other than a prophet when he repeatedly says that he was depending on the help of Him Who sent him? He died, praying Allah (God) to help his disciples whom he had converted out of Israel. He declared that he was not praying for the world (that the world be forgiven and saved from sin).

EVIL sinners (the devils) know this (Born to save his people from their sins, Matt. 1:23 -- This does not refer to them. It refers to a modern - day Jesus. They are well aware that it means the so -called lost and found members of the Black Nation).

Where, in th old testament of the Bible--by the old prophets--is it prophesied of Jesus as being born to save his people from their sins, or to save the world from its sins ? As I have already written is this article -- the teachers and preachers misunderstand the scripture --the Bible as well as the Holy Qur'an and their teachings or their reading. It is to be understood.

The average Christian teacher and preacher - as you will notice only preaches what they, as you, read without giving you the meaning. This is the reason they and their followers, today, are blinded to the knowledge of the truth of it which Allah, from the mouth of our God and Saviour (in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad ; to Whom be praised forever) revealed to me.

MANY Christian Teachers and preachers take the prophecies of Moses, and the other prophets after Moses, especially Isaiah, to refer to Jesus, while none of this is referring to Jesus nor Isaiah, Chapters 53,54 .

Study the old testament theology and you will agree with me that they do not refer to Jesus 2,000 years ago, but to God and a Messenger chosen by God at the end of the world (in the resurrection).

Jesus could not have been blind, deaf and dumb to his enemies as Isaiah, Chapter 53 shows that the prophet was Revelation 1:18 refers to himself as one that was dead and now alive, and having the key to hell and death.

This could not refer to Jesus 2,000 years ago. Such a man and work refer to the general resurrection and the end of the world of Satan,the devil. Read Rev. 5,6,7,12 - HERE a lamb is referred to. Jesus did not claim to be illiterate.

In all his ministry, we find that he was sent and that he was to deliver a message to the people from Another Who was greater than he.

HE USED parables to teach the people about the future to come and of the things pertaining to the God's purpose of setting up a Kingdom of Peace and Righteousness after the removal of the wicked. Isaiah, Jeremiah and the other prophets prophecies of the God Himself coming at the end of this world - not that the Jesus of 2,000 years ago will come and judge the world.

Mary's father was rich and had plenty of property. Also, her grandfather was rich. So, Mary's father objected to her marriage to Joseph, a poor carpenter. Mary loved Joseph and told her father that if she did not marry him, she would not marry anyone else. When the old man heard this, it made him sick, because no father wants his daughter to be an old maid. Joseph gave up thinking about marrying Mary and went and married another girl. Mary's father would go out and bring in very rich young men for his daughter in hopes of his daughter taking a liking to some of these young men, but she did not.

Joseph owned a little house, a small piece of land, and was also rearing up a family. He soon was the father of six children by this girl that he married and was married for six years. Mary's father was a big wealthy man and a great architect.

The old man had to go away to another town, about twenty - five miles from his home and set up a temple, but before he left home, he called Mary and side to her, " Now daughter, I have to go away and I will be gone for about three days. Now you must take care of everything until I return. You must feed and water all of the livestock. " (The old man had plenty of cattle.) He also said to Mary : "I want you to wear my old clothes and put on some false whiskers so that the people when they see you going down to feed the stock, they will think you are me an no one will say anything to you.

After the man leaves on his journey, a great dust storm comes up, which made it very dark. This kind of storm comes up twice a year.

During this storm, Mary becomes frightened and sends a message to Joseph, telling him that her father had gone away and that he would be away for three days. That she was left to feed and water all of the livestock and that she was alone and was a little afraid. She asked Joseph to come over and help her to take care of everything and then he would be company for her. Joseph tells his wife that he has to go off on a little business. He came over to Mary's house and she tells him of the costumes of her father what she would wear when she goes out to feed the livestock.

Joseph said, "Give me the old man's costume and when anybody sees us, they will think I am the old man with you." Joseph gets the team ready and Mary gets in with him to feed the livestock. The next day Joseph comes back and stays with Mary and helps her to feed and take care of the livestock.

On the third day, Mary's father came back and asked his daughter, "How's everything?" She said, "All right, Father."

So after three months the old man noticed Mary was growing larger than usual. He said to Mary, "What is the matter with you fattening so fast? Are you eating more than you should?" Mary said, "No, Father, I am not eating more than I should." The old man called Mary again and said "Mary, there is something the matter with you. Look how large you are. What are you doing?" Mary no longer could hide it, so she told him the truth.

She said to him, "Father, do you remember when you went off to set up a temple and were gone for three days some time ago and left me to attend the livestock? Well, I was afraid because of a dust storm and sent for Joseph to come over and help me. Well, he came and did help me feed the stock." The old man said, "Yes, and he fed them, too." She said to him, "Do you remember Joseph and me were trying to get you to let us marry when we were young and you would not allow us?"

Now this is what happened and I shall send for Joseph and let him tell you for himself." An old woman had already been to Joseph and told him that the child Mary was carrying was his child and the child would be a wonderful child, a prophet and teacher. She told him that the child was his, but Joseph denied it.

But this woman knew because she was a prophetess, or what we call a medium. She told him his name was in the Holy Qur'an and that he should take care of him and that the authorities would seek the child's life.

Joseph went and told Mary the good news that the old woman had told him concerning the child. Then Joseph went to Mary's father. By this time the old man was real sick because Mary was growing larger and larger everyday. He was in bed and had just pulled all of the whiskers out of his chin. Joseph said to the old man: "I will tell you about the whole thing, then you can kill me right here. Mary and I always loved each other, even when we were going to school and promised to marry when we were old enough. I came to you and asked you for Mary's hand but you would not give her to me. Now this is what happen. I am the father of the child that Mary is carrying but remember that the child is going to be a great man, a prophet and teacher. His name can be found in the history of the Holy Qur'an. Now remember, you must not tell anyone about this because of the authorities. If they knew this they would kill the child. So keep your mouth shut about this. Now you can kill me if you want to. I have told you the truth."

The last month of Mary's pregnancy drew near but the authorities did not know what time the child would be born. So the same medium that told Joseph of the child also went and told the authorities but no one knew which day the child would be born, although they knew the week. The authorities had a committee to go around and take a census of all the pregnant women and when they would give birth. This committee checked everyone who was pregnant. When the week came that Jesus would be born, the authorities had given orders that all boy babies born in that week should be killed. Joseph came and took charge of Mary himself. All men over in Asia are taught how to take care of their wives and perform this duty of their wives.

In case they don't care for a wet nurse, the girls are also taught about midwifery when still very young.

Mary's father had plenty of livestock and ordered stalls to be built. Joseph took one of the stalls and filled it in all around the inside and put a bed in the center for Mary (this is the manger that the Bible speaks about where Jesus was born). To look at the stalls from the outside, it appeared as if it was just a stall filled with hay for the animals. In this way he concealed Mary from the authorities. He brought her food and water every day. In that week when the authorities were expecting Jesus to be born, they sent the committee around to those who had a list of who would give birth that same week. When they came to Mary's father's house, they knocked on the door and the old man went and met them. They said to him, "Where is the woman who gave birth this week?" Doesn't she stay here?" The old man said "What woman?" They said, "The one that was with child." He said , "Oh, I know what you are talking about. The woman that was here some time. She was only visiting here," the old man said. She has returned to her home in Egypt. " They said, "Oh, she was just visiting?" The old man said, "Yes that is all. "

Joseph came daily with water and food to Mary and to see the baby. He fooled his wife by telling her that he had a job building a house. This was how Jesus was born.

After a few days and as soon as Mary was able, Joseph told her that he would have to send her and the child away to his people down in Egypt. Joseph gets himself and Mary all prepared to leave for Egypt. At a certain time of the year in Palestine where they were living a dark cloud comes up.

When this kind of cloud comes up, one cannot see so well. It was the kind of cloud that Joseph waited for. Under the darkness of this stormy cloud, Joseph mounted Mary and her baby on the back of an ass. Away they went for the camel station. The ass (or donkey) knew the route under the darkness of the storm cloud. (the camel station is where camels are for hire.) Over at home (Asia) we have camel stations. They are called mail camels. The camel is very sensitive and a fast runner. The mail camels go from forty to fifty miles per hour and it was one of the mail camels they hired. From Jerusalem to Cairo, Egypt was about six hundred miles. The camel knew the route well. He travels it daily. Nothing is necessary except to tell the camel where you want him to go and he will go right direct to the place. They have comfortable seats on their backs. Joseph had provided Mary with money and everything. So he mounted her and Jesus on the mail camel, and told the camel to take them to Cairo, Egypt, as fast as possible. Off they went and Joseph and the ass returned home.

Mary took the child Jesus into Egypt where his people lived at Cairo. When Jesus was about the age of five, his mother put him in school. A very intelligent child in school he was. He finished school at the age of twelve. He took courses in astronomy, geometry, and all other branches of sciences. There was an old man who had learned that Jesus was born and he wanted to see Jesus and must see him at any price. He knew what Jesus was going to be and how the authorities were going to seek him and try to destroy him. This old man wanted to get to Jesus and teach him how to stay out of the way of those who would seek to kill him. This old man's lesson that he wanted to teach Jesus was about the Radio in the Head." This old man knew it. It is called Radio in the Head because with this great wisdom you can hear as distinctively as one can hear over a wire or like the present radio. The man actually hears what other men think or say in their heads. Jesus must know this wisdom. The old man goes and gets on the road that Jesus uses to come and go to school, but he must see him alone. The first day the old man watched the boys come from school with Jesus. When Jesus got out of school, he and the other boys would be together. The old man could not get to talk with Jesus. He goes back and says, "I will come back tomorrow. I will get right in front of him and fall across his path." The next day the old man looking for Jesus saw him and the other boys coming alone. Jesus was talking about his lessons and was teaching another boy his algebra.

The old man pretended to the boys that he was looking for a certain street number and Jesus heard him asking the boys the number, and the number he called was just a few doors from his home. Jesus said, "I know where you want to go." The other boys went home and left the old man and Jesus together. The old man said to Jesus, "I heard you talking about algebra. You are a very smart boy. I have a grandson and he is studying the same course. I would like for you to come over and teach him his lesson as you could help him a lot." Jesus said, "Yes, I will." This just suited Jesus. He liked to teach someone something.

The old man did not have anyone for Jesus, nor did he care about the number that Jesus was taking him to. He said to Jesus, "Do you know who you are and what your name is?" Jesus said, "Yes my name is Jesus, and I don't know any more than that. I believe that I will be a great man someday." "Yes," said the old man. "Your name is in the Qur'an. Have you seen it there? You are that man. I am not looking for a number. I was looking for you. I have something that I want to teach you because as soon as you finish school, you will leave home and you are going to Europe to the Adamic Civilization to teach. Also you must know how to take care of yourself because they will try to kill you."

The next day the old man goes and gets himself onto the path Jesus uses. It just so happened that Jesus was all alone this day, walking behind his classmates, so the old man was very glad.. He walked with Jesus toward his mother's house and this time he gives his first lesson about receiving messages (Radio in the Head). It was easy for Jesus to learn anything. He learned it within three days. Then the old man said to him, "Now you can go anywhere you want to. You can take care of yourself ; nobody can harm you now unless you let them. "

After Jesus finished school , he said to his mother that he was going to Europe. His mother did not want him to go. She gave him everything that she thought he wanted. At the age of fourteen his mother could not keep him any longer. She gave him two thousand dollars the day he left to go to Europe.

Jesus had not gone but a few blocks before he had given the two thousand dollars away that his mother had given him. Then he left Cairo and walked six hundred miles to Europe from Jerusalem in his bare feet, teaching as he traveled. If he got hungry, he would not eat your bread unless you let him work for it. He would wash his own clothes in a lake or some place where he could find water. He never ate a meal without working for it but once, and that was one day when he walked until his feet was sore and swollen. He stopped at this woman's house that is in your Bible, by the name of Martha. Luke 10:38 says: "Now it came to pass,as they went,that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house." She bathed his feet and prepared him some food. This is not the only time that he was at her home.

Jesus had a hard time trying to teach the people Freedom, Justice, Equality. He taught anywhere and everywhere that he could get the people to listen to him. He never had over twenty -five or thirty listeners at one time. He would start teaching at a place and before he could finish the authorities would be on their way after him. But he always stayed tuned in on them. As soon as they would start after him, and would get near him, he would dismiss his congregation and run for his life. They never would have killed Jesus if he had given himself up because he always knew what they were going to do before they could start. The basis of Jesus' teaching were Freedom, Justice,and Equality, or to sum it up, " The Sermon on the Mount." Jesus taught "As a man thinketh in his heart so is he." Jesus' teachings were designed to show the Adamic Race that they would eventually self - destruct because of their own evil doings and not from some avenging God in the sky ! Repent of your evil and be saved. The Beatitudes teach the principles and rules of the Kingdom of God.

Jesus 'constant cry was, " I come not to destroy the law but to fulfill it. " To fulfill means to be in actuality. The authorities chased Jesus until he became discouraging to them. They named him Christ (which means troublemaker) because every time they would get there, he would be gone. Jesus taught twenty - two years on the run. Until,at last he read and understood that he was to soon : two thousand years to soon ! Jesus was two thousand years ahead of time for the teaching of freedom, justice, and equality.

It was raining that day. He got himself a standing place under a awning of a Jew's store and began teaching those who were stopping under the awning out of the rain. The Jew who owned the store got angry with Jesus about teaching in front of his store and asked him to leave. Jesus told him to let him teach under his awning, that the people he was teaching would buy something from him. But the Jew insisted that the people were keeping those that might buy something from seeing his goods in the showcase. But Jesus said, " I don't care. If I leave here I will lose my people who are listening to me. " He had about twenty - five there. Jesus never had over thirty - five listening to him at any one time. The multitudes that the Bible speaks of only heard about Jesus from word of mouth.

The Jew said, " You are the man called Jesus that the authorities are looking for a lone time." Jesus said, "Yes I and the one and you can call them anytime you want to." The Jew goes in and sends for the authorities, informing them that Jesus was teaching right in front of his store. "Come right over,right away, and you will catch him," he said.

Two officers (policeman) were sent to the scene. Now there was a reward out for Jesus. The reward was twenty -five hundred in gold (not thirty pieces of silver) if he was brought in dead, and fifteen hundred dollars if he were brought in alive. So these two officers raced down to the old Jew's store where said Jesus was. Each of the officers wanted the reward. Jesus knew that they were coming and made no effort to leave because he intended for them to kill him. The two officers rushed up to him, one on each side of him, each man trying to be the first to lay hands on Jesus so he could get the reward because the reward would only be paid to one man. Both of the men (officers) came near, touching Jesus at the same time. The one on the right said Jesus was his man. The one on the left said, "No, he's mine. I was the first to touch him/" The other said, " I was the first.

Jesus seeing them arguing and disputing about him, said to them. "Will you let me help you settle this argument and tell you who was the first man to put his hands on me?" The two officers agreed to let Jesus settle it for them. "The man on the right side touched me one tenth of a second before the one on the left." So the one on the left lost the reward. The one on the right who won took Jesus and started on toward the jail. They got down the street and the officer said to Jesus, "Listen I will only get fifteen hundred dollars in gold for carrying you in alive, but if I carry you to them they are going to kill you anyway, so why not let me kill you and make the twenty -five hundred dollars as I am a poor man and have a wife and family to care for?" Jesus knew that he would be killed but did not care.

So Jesus agreed with the officer that he would let him kill him so he could get the bigger reward. These officers were armed with a knife. The kind of knife that the hand would not slip either way on it like the present hunting knives. Jesus and the officer walked down the street where a Jew's store was vacant with boards nailed over the front to secure the safety of the store. The officer said, "Right here is all right. Now put your back against the wall and your hands up." Jesus was not afraid. He was a brave man. He put his hands up and straightened himself and put his hands straight across the storefront flat against the boards.

These articles are written due to the mental blindness and theological knowledge of the Bible's teaching of Jesus' birth, life, teachings and death : The making of Jesus the equal of his sender (Almighty God) and more than a prophet ; and a hearer of prayers ; the rising from the dead and ascending into space to reach his FATHER in the heavens. There to await at His right - hand side until the Day of Judgment though he was supposed to have died to save the world. Now, his return to destroy the people or world that he died to save and reconcile to God.

Jesus was born, according to Matthew 1:21,to save his people from their sins. Jesus disclaimed the Jews as being his people (John 8:44). Then who are his people that "he will save from their sins?" Can he hear our prayers? Is he alive in flesh or is he dead? Who did Jesus pray to?

Learn in this series on JESUS the truth and understanding of what is written of Jesus. The Bible and Holy Qur'an's teachings will be used on Jesus ' history. Do not miss - no not one of these articles.

Jesus' birth and ministry would bring about the end of Jewish independence. Therefore, Jesus birth and place could not be revealed (the story of the deceitful Herod is well known)

THE NUMBER one secret was that Joseph and Mary were not married. Yet, Mary was pregnant. How could they hide this thing? This was the great problem facing them.They wanted to marry,but could not because of the objection by Mary's father to Joseph because he was the son of a poor man and he was a rich man.

Joseph was now married to another woman for the past six years and had six children by his wife. Yet Mary was his childhood sweetheart, and they had promised to marry each other when they grew up to marriageable age.

This is the teaching of the childhood love of Joseph and Mary by Allah (in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad to Whom be praised forever). I have much more to write on what Allah (God) taught of the true history of Jesus.

This is the history of Jesus, as taught me by Allah, in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad, to Whom be praised forever.

THE REAL truth of this world and people was kept a secret only to be revealed and made manifest by the All knowing One (Allah in Person) at the time of the end of this world. (Due to limited space and time, please excuse my not pointing out to you every chapter and verse of Bible and Holy Qur'an where it can be found.)

Last week, I told you Joseph and Mary were sweethearts of and their promise to marry each other when they became of marriageable age - though not in every detail as Allah (God) in the person of Master Fard Muhammad (to Whom be praised forever) taught me, which is not necessary here.

I mentioned that part of the true history of Jesus where the physical side is mistaken for the spiritual side. Teachers and preachers of Christianity have confused the public, themselves and followers due to the lack of the right understanding of the scripture. But you should be happy that you are living in these days of the manifestation of those hidden truths pertaining to this world that you have always wanted to know.

FOR THE past 35 years, I have constantly preached and taught you what He (Master Fard Muhammad) taught me. Can you prove with truth what I am teaching that He taught me, to be other than the truth ?

I have taken up Jesus and his teaching because after Master Fard Muhammad taught me, I saw quickly that this man's (Jesus') history was the world's most misrepresented and misunderstood. What Allah has taught me of the truth is common sense and makes sense.

The purpose of Jesus' birth and teaching was to show forth that which was to come. Allah, in the Person of Fard Muhammad (to Whom be praised forever) said that we would not have known Jesus if he had not died (or given his life for the truth that he taught;) and the prophets before Jesus suffered death for the truth that they taught ;or,as Allah said, any true Muslim will give his or her life for Islam.

I WILL agree with the teaching of the Holy Qur'an that Jesus and his mother was a sign. I shall prove this in this series on the purpose of Jesus' birth and mission, according to the Bible and Holy Qur'an, on which the two books agree: The fulfillment of the Prophets of Israel, and to serve as a sign for the last Messenger and his people (the lost and found, lost members of the black nation here in North America.)

The ignorant preach that Jesus was the God Himself, while Jesus represented himself as one sent from God. And Jesus taught the people to believe in the God who sent him, and sent that he came not to do his will, but the will of He Who sent him.

Jesus was born as all human beings ; flesh and blood, and he died as all human beings ; in the flesh of which he was made. And his body is still dead like all other dead - just as Moses before him, and the Prophets after him. Your prayers to anyone who is dead cannot be heard, for their hearing went with them in their death. Matt. 1:21, and she shall bring (give birth) forth a son, and Thou shall call his name Jesus: for he shall save his people from their sins.

IT IS useless to say that the jews were Jesus's people whom he must save from their sins. In all his teaching Jesus never claimed kinship to the jews. And most of his parables were made in condemnation of the wicked house (race) of Israel. And finally classified them as being a race of devils because their father was a devil. John 8:44.

They claim to be the children of God (the god of righteousness ; the same god of Abraham.) This claim is still made by the whole of the caucasian world today : "That we all are people from the same God," only to deceive the righteous. Their god is not our God, and Jesus reminded them of this in Matt.8:42 in the 40th verse of the chapter: That they were the murderers of the righteous who preached the truth.

This is fulfilled today by the same race. They know I preach the truth and they seek to kill me and my followers and destroy our places of worship, or any so - called Negroes and their places of worship if they seek truth and justice.

Would God give a son to die to save His enemies? Will God send another son to die for the sins of this same people that they have committed since the death of Jesus, and save them from the fire of hell which has now been kindled ? If the world of white mankind is saved by the death of Jesus, and their sins forgiven, what was the cause of their sins since Jesus denounced them to be devils themselves ?

It is repeatedly prophesied in the Bible and Holy Qur'an that God will forgive the sins of the lost - found members of the Black Nation, whom God, Himself, would find and restore at the time and end of the world.

How could Jesus have been other than a prophet when he repeatedly says that he was depending on the help of Him Who sent him? He died, praying Allah (God) to help his disciples whom he had converted out of Israel. He declared that he was not praying for the world (that the world be forgiven and saved from sin).

EVIL sinners (the devils) know this (Born to save his people from their sins, Matt. 1:23 -- This does not refer to them. It refers to a modern - day Jesus. They are well aware that it means the so -called lost and found members of the Black Nation).

Where, in th old testament of the Bible--by the old prophets--is it prophesied of Jesus as being born to save his people from their sins, or to save the world from its sins ? As I have already written is this article -- the teachers and preachers misunderstand the scripture --the Bible as well as the Holy Qur'an and their teachings or their reading. It is to be understood.

The average Christian teacher and preacher - as you will notice only preaches what they, as you, read without giving you the meaning. This is the reason they and their followers, today, are blinded to the knowledge of the truth of it which Allah, from the mouth of our God and Saviour (in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad ; to Whom be praised forever) revealed to me.

MANY Christian Teachers and preachers take the prophecies of Moses, and the other prophets after Moses, especially Isaiah, to refer to Jesus, while none of this is referring to Jesus nor Isaiah, Chapters 53,54 .

Study the old testament theology and you will agree with me that they do not refer to Jesus 2,000 years ago, but to God and a Messenger chosen by God at the end of the world (in the resurrection).

Jesus could not have been blind, deaf and dumb to his enemies as Isaiah, Chapter 53 shows that the prophet was Revelation 1:18 refers to himself as one that was dead and now alive, and having the key to hell and death.

This could not refer to Jesus 2,000 years ago. Such a man and work refer to the general resurrection and the end of the world of Satan,the devil. Read Rev. 5,6,7,12 - HERE a lamb is referred to. Jesus did not claim to be illiterate.

In all his ministry, we find that he was sent and that he was to deliver a message to the people from Another Who was greater than he.

HE USED parables to teach the people about the future to come and of the things pertaining to the God's purpose of setting up a Kingdom of Peace and Righteousness after the removal of the wicked. Isaiah, Jeremiah and the other prophets prophecies of the God Himself coming at the end of this world - not that the Jesus of 2,000 years ago will come and judge the world.

There is no proof to substantiate a belief that Jesus, or any of the old prophets of the past, will come and judge the people. There is the Bible statement concerning Enoch and Moses and Elijah -- that death did not take Enoch away- and that no one knows where Moses was buried and that Elijah went to heaven, soul and body. Not one of the prophets is alive in some place or heaven,as the Christians want us to believe. We would follow with an argument in favor of these prophets being dead and that they are not in heaven with earthly bodies.

But Jesus, being born in Palestine, was brought up by his mother, as any other boy or man - going to school and suffering as all others. He was a man before he was crucified. He was flesh and not a spirit.The Christian like to represent God as being a spirit and Jesus to be His Son. How could Jesus, who was flesh and blood -- be a spirit from a spirit world and a spirit God ? He could not be flesh and blood if his father was a spirit. If His body was not made from the earth's material matter then His Son would have been the same.

YOU SAY the son was made for the purpose of getting to the people. That is true. He had to have a body like all other men. You believe and agree with me that this body was matter-- then how could it have been gotten from an immaterial father? This cannot be done. God made it clear Himself, that no man can be made without the agency of a man, this is a known fact. Then how can you believe that God would double cross Himself and produce one without the agency of man? This is something God cannot and will not do. That is why man was first in creation. From him other creatures were produced. But the male must be [first.]

"And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophets Esaias. And when he opened the book, he found the place where it was written, The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor ; he hath sent me to heal the broken hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord. " St. Luke 4 : 17,18,19.

HEAR JESUS refers to himself as having the spirit of the Lord upon him, Then, if he has the spirit of the Lord upon him, he cannot be God, himself. And, if he was anointed to preach the gospel to the poor, He who anointed him is greater one. If his preaching was to deal with captives, by no means could this have referred to the people of Israel, who were not captives at the time. They were an independent nation until after the death of Jesus. Then who was the captive? Israel was not in bondage at the time of Jesus. And, the recovery of sight to the blind shows, by all means that the people had lost sight that they always had. Could Israel fix this description, when the prophets and the Torah were with Israel up until the coming of Jesus? They still have the Torah that Moses gave them. Therefore, this cannot refer to Israel, if they were spiritually blind. This people lost their sight -- not by their own doings. They had been robbed of the sight Jesus was referring to, here in the 4th Chapter of St. Luke, because he is quoting a prophecy made by Isaiah. Isaiah was not referring to the Jews in his prophecy, he was referring to a people at the end of the Jews time.

AS ISAIAH said this is a people who were robbed and spoiled and that they hid away in prison houses. He further described the people as being deprived of justice and they were too blind to seek justice, and their leaders did not seek justice for them, in these words: "None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity. "These people to which Isaiah refers are people of today. The Negroes are those deprived of justice --and no one seeks justice for them but God, Himself, and His Messenger. In another Verse he says:"And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off ; for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

THESE ARE the freedoms that the so - called American Negro is after today -- freedom, justice and equality. This prophecy could not have been fulfilled 2,000 years ago among people who actually were guilty of not giving equal justice and equality. Isaiah 59: 4, 14. "And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears." It could not be a prophet telling the people that such distant prophecy was fulfilled 2,000 years ago. It could not have been preach the acceptable year of the Lord. St. Luke 4:21. You may ask: What is the acceptable year of the Lord? What does this mean? This means the resurrection year of the mentally dead: that God will accept the mentally dead that in that year, He will bring about a general resurrection of the spiritually dead. Jesus was 2,000 years before this scripture should be fulfilled. The lost sheep, or the so-called American Negro (Lost and Found members of his people).could not have been accepted and delivered before today, because the finding and the returning of the lost members of the Black nation ushers in the judgment of the world, as prophesied by Abraham, that the Lord will bring again thy seed. Gen. 15:13,14. And in the parable made by Jesus concerning the prodigal son. St. Luke 25: 12,32.

JESUS wasn't the resurrector of a mentally dead people. Nor was he the resurrector of the symbolic lost sheep.

JESUS was not the resurrector of a mentally dead people. Nor was he God, Himself. And, the scripture's prophecy woven around his name is not referring to that prophet of the past.

It refers to a future Jesus and Saviour, coming in the end of the world. There is no such thing as reincarnation of Jesus 2,000 years ago. But, it means one coming to do that which Jesus wanted to do 2,000 years ago. In John 17:1-- Jesus': "The hour is come" What hour does Jesus refer to? (It could not have referred to the Judgment of his enemies.) Does it refer to Jesus' death (more likely his death) or to the doom of his enemies? Or does it refer to a victory (if a victory,where was it won?) An accomplishment to his mission? (His mission to convert the Jews was not accomplished.)

"GLORIFY Thy Son, that Thy Son also may glorify Thee." (Here the demand for glorification is on condition that God glorify the Son first and the Son will glorify (or the father.) Here also it is made clear that without the glorification of the Son there could be none for the Father. The language used in the first verse of John 17 can easily be taken as one speaking of someone other than himself. If referring to self --the words: "Glory Me Thy Son." The second is contrary to verses 8, 9, 12, for as he says in the second verse --As Thou has given him (not me) power over flesh, (which flesh?--not the Jews) that he (not self) should give eternal life to as many as Thou hast given him"(Not the word: to me.) In John 17: 24 these words are used -- "Father, I will that they also,whom Thou hast given Me" (Here it is made clear one is speaking of self (me.) But how did the mix - up of English come about.

I ONLY want to show that Jesus was only a prophet. Was Jesus the "Bread of life" of 2,000 years ago? John 6:48 - - "I am that Bread of life." Was Jesus the "Son of man," of whom he prophesied in Matt. 25:30,31? What is that bread of life? He said in John 6:50 -- "This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die." If we are to get the understanding from these words that he is referring to the "truth" as being the bread of life -- they do not lead us to believe that it was the truth which he is classifying as the bread of life. Because John 6:50 says: "I am the living bread, he shall live forever ; and the that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world." This it is to be taken as a spiritual reference (truth) then why make it physical (flesh). ? John 6:53 affirms John 6:51, as meaning his flesh. It reads like this: "Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you." Then he says, John :54, 55 -- "Whoso eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him at the last day. For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed." John 6:56 shows that he continues to mean flesh --the same as in John 6:56 -- "He that eateth my flesh --and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him." No people ate the flesh of Jesus or drank his blood while he was here. Why should the scripture be distorted and make the reader believe that he is actually referring to the eating of the flesh of man? And the reader now has to make his own explanation, as the Jews did not actually eat the flesh or drink the blood of Jesus.

Again, John 6:57, Jesus confesses that he himself depended upon God --that he was sent that he was not God, Himself. Then he says in the same verse, "so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me."

To say that Jesus is God is an ignorant way of preaching the truth. John 6:58 mentions, "not as your fathers did eat manna and are dead." And how many of his disciples do we see alive today from eating Jesus' flesh 2,000 years ago? If they mean the bread of truth it is clear to the reader that flesh and blood were not meant. He makes it clear in John 6:55 "For my flesh is meat. indeed and my blood is drink indeed." In John 6:56, he says that we must first eat his flesh and drink his blood. In Matt. 4:4 he says, " -- Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." The Bible, as I have always taught, is very questionable when it gets down to what the scholars say.

The text of the Bible is presented in such a way that the scholars of the Bible will answer its distorted reading by saying it means thus and thus. But he does not make its meaning clear. However, he continually writes it so that it could be easily condemned.

John 6:62 reads: "What if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?" This is questionable. Is he referring to himself in this verse or to one to come? Jesus was born in Palestine. He prophesied of the coming of the Son of man in Matt. 24:30,31: --"and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of Heaven with the power and great glory." Here Jesus prophesied of the coming of the Son of man and not the coming of himself. He shows that he is prophesying of another other than himself. Matt. 24:31": "-and he shall send his angels." The scriptural readers of my people have been making this mistake ever since the white man allowed him to read about it. They taught them that when Jesus was prophesying of the coming of God that he was prophesying of himself as God. They also mentioned other work of the Last Messenger which is prophesied in Malachi and Revelation under the similitude of "lamb" to be the Jesus of 2,000 years ago -- which is wrong.

When a prophet prophesies of one coming after him, he cannot be referring to himself. Nor can we take it to be the last one, as it was with Muhammad who prophesied of prophets coming one every century -- in his Hadith. Neither of these prophets should be taken for the prophet in the general resurrection of the dead. If they had been referring to themselves, they would have been condemning the Word of God in the Bible and Holy Qur'an.

Allah, in His Holy Qur'an says that He does not make any man to live forever. The proof of this is that we do not see the prophets of the past walking around here. Jesus, himself, is like all the others who went before him. They are dead and they will not return. This is a misconstruction on the part of the theologians. They seemed to have in mind to hide the true meaning under similitude. Again, I quote Matt. 25:31 corresponds with Matt, 25::31- that it is a certainty that the Son of man will come. Matt.25:32: "-And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats."

No place in this verse does Jesus refer to himself as coming. He is prophesying of the coming of someone else whom he calls the Son of man - whom I have made clear to you in previous articles refers to One who is partially a son of the white race and partially a son of the black race, in order that he could deal justly towards the two races. His color being similar to white people make it possible for him to get among them, since his mother was one of them - but his father was not. Therefore, the black man claims him- and not the white race - to be of their flesh and blood -although he is part of the two, the male carries the seed.

Therefore, we call the male the father - and hee is the father. In the beginning, the male was the father of us all. That is the way we are all from the God - meaning he is the father of all life- of all creation. This history of Jesus that the white man teaches the black man- that he had a miraculous birth (without the agency of a male of flesh and blood) -is used to cause misunderstanding of the truth of the physical birth and death of Jesus.

BEING SLAVES who could not read nor write, and kept in this condition (non-educated) for over 300 years, made our fathers ignorant to the knowledge of the theology (the true meaning) of the Bible; but, today, God has appeared in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad, to Whom praise is due forever, to teach us this lost knowledge of the truth. The white people are continually - trying to keep the so- called Negro blind, deaf, and dumb, by preaching Jesus as being God, Himself, and that he died for the world of their evil kind. Meanwhile, they are at their wit's end today trying to find peace for their troubled hearts. They are charged with killing the righteous and the prophets of God, because of their hatred for the truth and righteousness, which these prophets preached among them. They are the same today,as they were yesterday. They still hate the righteous, and one missioned as a Messenger from God. They seek the death of the righteous.

THE 9TH verse of the 17th Chapter of St. John,gives the lie to Jesus giving lie for the wicked world of white mankind. He did not even pray for the evil world - not to say that he gave his life for them. But his prayer was only for those whom he converted: that god keep them in the way of righteousness and out of the wickedness of the wicked world of the Caucasian. I quote his words: "I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine. And all mine are thine, and thine are mine ; and I am glorified in them" (9 and 10th verses of the same chapter) If Jesus did not pray for the wicked world, how can we say he so loved the world that he gave his life of the world? The 11th verse says, and I quote: "And now I am no more in the world, "meaning the world of evil people that he was trying to convert. "But these are in the world, and I come to thee" - meaning he dies like every man and returns to his Maker.

IN THE 18th verse of the same Chapter, he still repeats this - that he was sent and not come of himself, in these words: "As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world." He continues in this prayer, putting himself entirely upon his sender. This is the blindness with which the white man has blinded the black, leaving him alone to understand the scripture face value as he reads it. The Revelation of St. John 1: 11, I quote "I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last." They refer to Jesus as saying this on his return from death. The same thing is being preached now, from the coming of Allah, in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad, that He is the First, and He is the Last. Here the words have two meaning, and times and places. In the time of Jesus, who was from the Black Nation, of whom the scripture teaches was a Jew, but a Jew is not an original people, therefore these words apply to a member of the Aboriginal people of the earth -that they are first in human form.

THE ARE the same words used by Master Fard Muhammad, to Whom praises are due forever, but having two meaning, number one, He is One and part of the Black Nation, which is the first and the last. Secondly, the words mean that: I am the First God, and Saviour and Friend of yours -and, the Last God, saviour, and Friend to you (the Lost Found so-called American Negroes.)

The 18th verse of the 1st Chapter of the Revelation of St. John reads like this: "I am he that liveth, and was dead; and , behold, I am alive for ever more, " This does not refer now to the God, but refers to one of the mentally dead Negroes, who had been dead to the knowledge of truth and self and God -and now has been brought to life (Knowledge),and, has now been given authority over mental death in these words: "and have the keys of hell and of death.

The Keys mean authority and wisdom of how to execute the authority "of hell" means the condition of the people of his, in hell, under a people who had killed them mentally. This key he says, and I quote "... and of death" does not mean the natural, literal death that comes to everyone, but it means that this key of authority and enlightenment would destroy the death of ignorance and the mental death of the people of God, in hell. Not a burning, literal fiery hell, as the reader may think, but a hell of condition of life - being deprive of the essential things of life.

NEVER TAKE THIS prophecy as being of Jesus of 2,000 years ago. When a man understands the word of God spoken through the mouth of prophets, he is safe from being deceived by the arch deceiver (the devil). There is no such thing as a return of physical flesh and blood and bone from its physical death. This is against the law of God, in which He has made us. Jesus was only a prophet. 4:171- "O People of the Book, exceed not the limits of your religion nor speak anything about Allah, but the truth. The Messiah, Jesus son of Mary, is only a messenger of Allah and his word which He communicated to Mary and a mercy from Him. So believe in Allah and His messengers. And say not, Three. Desist, it is better for you.

ALLAH IS only one God. Far be it from His glory to have a son. To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth. And sufficient is Allah as having charge of affairs. " Here, it is made clear that Jesus was only a prophet, as the Bible teaches that he was only a prophet, in what we have of history of Jesus in the Bible. In the 172nd verse of the same Chapter 4, it clears Jesus, himself of not teaching the people that he was God and not a messenger of God. " The Messiah disdains not to be a servant of Allah, nor do the angels who are near to Him. And whoever disdains His service and is proud, He will gather them all together to Himself." Here, Jesus makes it clear that he was only a prophet. Note: Jesus was called the Messiah of the Christ. Neither one of these names belonged to Jesus of 2,000 years ago, due to their meanings.

TAKE, FOR instance, the name Christ. It is a name or attribute belonging to the son of Man that Jesus prophesied of coming in the last days. It is the attribute of the One coming to crush or to destroy the wicked world. Messiah and Christ are names given to the expected One that will usher in the Judgment (the resurrection of the dead in the last days.) This, Jesus did not do in his day and time- and could not do in his day and time, because it was not the time of the resurrection of the dead. Allah has taught me that these scriptures do not belong to the Jesus of 2,000 years ago.

Even the imagery or ideals of some of the scholars on Islam is that Jesus did not die in Palestine, but died in Kashmir, because of an old grave the people of Kashmir said was the grave of a prophet who came - or one they thought was a prophet - who came from the west and died there. This is contrary to the teaching of God and the Gospel (scripture) of Jesus, which claimed he died not. Allah taught me that he did not on the cross, but he was killed on the streets of Jerusalem by a deputy sheriff at that time. The deputy sheriff brought death to Jesus by stabbing him through the heart, and the sword pierced all the way through into the timber or board that he was against, when he gave up his life to the deputy, to take it away instantly because the Jews wanted to torture him.

THE BIBLE says that the soldier speared him through the heart (ST. John 19: 34). The soldier brought death so instantly to Jesus, that it left him looking like a crucifix against the wall of a vacant store. The deputy sheriff demanded him to stretch forth his hands and arms as any man, or authorized officer, when they are about to arrest, rob, or kill you. They demand your hands up so that you will not use them against their intended work. Jesus' death was so instant, the Savior and God, Who Came in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad, taught me, that the blood stopped circulating in his veins that instant also. Therefore, his body was chilled so quickly by death, that his hands and arms were left stretched in the same position that the soldier demanded him to make. There is no such thing - as Jesus was not killed and put to death in Palestine. He was most surely killed in Jerusalem.

Many of the Arabs Scholars believe in miraculous things, and wish to make their understanding of Jesus' history and death to correspond with their belief in a God that is not man. But, in every respect, the Holy Qur'an teaches us of Jesus' history, makes him nothing but a prophet. And, if we believe God is something other than man (an unnatural something), we have to prove it. Therefore, the law of nature will not let us make God something other than man. Jesus could be no more than a prophet according to the Bible and Holy Qur'an concerning his ministry and teaching as you have learned from this writing and from the scriptures mentioned. There is much more that you can read, yourself. What I have mentioned to you gives you better understanding of how to understand the history of Jesus in the light of a prophet and not in the light of the God, Whom he so beautifully said had sent him. In his own words he confessed that he had not come of himself, but that he was sent.

THOSE OF us who hope to see him come to life and guide us though the resurrection are gravely mistaking the scriptures and the history taught of Jesus. Let us face the truth and believe the truth and speak the truth. The Holy Qur'an makes him only a prophet. The Bible also, teaches us he was only a prophet. Other people have made us believe that he was God Himself and that he was not sent. --That he was incapable of dying -- but did die...that God will forgive Israel and that Israel will be reconciled to God as a people of righteousness. This is wrong. I am sure that if you study his history you will find that he did not say that he would die for Israel. Israel , by nature, was made wicked by their father, Yakub.

It would have been a foolish death for the Jesus to make, as we see today, that God's natural law is against anyone who goes against his law and will not submit to His Will --as the white race has done for the past 6,000 years.

ONLY a few white people who because of their belief or faith in the truth of entire submission to the Will of God (Islam) have been promised by God, Himself, the salvation of a prolonged life through the resurrection and after the resurrection as a reward for their belief and their attempts to live the life of the Muslim. Yet, by nature, they are not one of the righteous. There are some here and there around us and in a country such as Europe who are trying to practice Islam. They will be rewarded for it. Their reward will be to live through the resurrection of us, the mentally dead, Lost and Found Members of our Nation.

THE HOLY QUR'AN says that Jesus came in fulfillment of prophecy. Chap.4:171,652.He was granted revelation, Chap 2:87,; Chap.5:110. I quote Chap.5:171."O people of the Book,exceed not the limits in your religion nor speak anything about Allah, but the truth. Jesus, the son of Mary, is only a messenger of Allah and His word which He communicated to Mary and a mercy from Him. So believe in Allah and His messengers And say not Three....Desist, it is better for you. Allah is only one God. Far ne it from His glory to have a son. To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth. And sufficient is Allah as having charge of affairs."

Chap. 5:172 "Jesus disdains not to be a servant of Allah, nor do the angels who are near to Him. And whoever disdains His service and is proud, he will gather them all together to Himself."

WE WHO think about the way the natural laws work among us, can by no means justify our belief in what has been taught to us concerning the birth,death and resurrection of Jesus. It is contrary to the law in which nature creates flesh, blood and bone. Jesus was created under the same law. Jesus was born and died under the same law. Please get up off your knees praying to go and meet him. Pray to meet the One whom he said would come after him--the coming of the Son of Man, to whom all the nations of earth would submit--- the Supreme Being -- having power and exercising that power over all of us and with the heavens and the earth and what is therein bearing Him witness that he is God and besides Him there is on other, Who came in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad To Whom Praise is due forever, God in Person.
